When the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth? (Luke 18:8)

Jesus's question is one that should bother all Christians. Increasing numbers of people don't go to church. Only 4 percent of those born between 1998 and 2013 have a biblical worldview. The rest don't believe in the Bible, absolute moral truth, or a loving, all-powerful Creator. They don't even believe in the concept of sin.

Yet youth pastor Jeff Grenell believes that once American teens and young adults discover that God is even more amazing than Stranger Things, "they will be hooked."

His new book Next Gen Faith: 12 Spiritual Practices for Youth is written in the vein of The Celebration of Discipline by Richard Foster. Next Gen Faith is designed to provide key steps for spiritual formation and reverse the godless trend among the next generations.

Fear is one of the driving forces of our lives, especially when times are dark and we don't know who to trust. Our own minds can torment us with uncontrollable thoughts, demonic attacks, and emotional turmoil.

"We all have a battle that triggers unproductive and unfruitful thoughts," explains prophetic deliverance minister Kathy DeGraw. "Although the battle rages in our minds, the truth is we have the power within us to capture, dismiss, and change every negative thought."

Supernatural healing awaits! Mind Battles: Root Out Mental Triggers to Release Peace is packed with applications, prayers, and prophetic activations for deliverance from internal strife.

In the book of Judges, a demonic spirit controlled a woman named Delilah to bring down Samson, one of the mightiest warriors of the Bible.

The spirit of Delilah is still thriving amid God's people today! Its mission is to stop believers from fulfilling their destiny by seducing, enticing, and berating them so that they fall asleep, forgetting their true purpose in Christ.

Prophetic minister Andrew Towe exposes this evil in Breaking the Spirit of Delilah: Accessing God's Power to Topple Ancient Strongholds. His book contains explosive information concerning Christian living, spiritual warfare, prayer, and revival.

As a young woman who desired to abandon herself to God, St. Thérèse of Lisieux felt daunted at the thought of climbing “the steep stairway of perfection.” Thérèse searched the Scriptures until she discovered a path to freedom she called her “little way.” This is “the way of spiritual childhood, the way of trust and absolute surrender.” It is a recognition that while we are small and imperfect, we have a mighty God who reaches out to us with infinite love, grace, and strength to take care of all our needs.

This beautiful book highlights St. Thérèse’s deep insights into faith and devotion. As you read excerpts from her autobiography, poetry, and letters, with accompanying Scripture verses, you will learn to rest in the loving arms of your heavenly Father, allowing your own faith to grow and flourish.

It’s 1955, when scandalous affairs are never talked about, and divorce is rare. Certainly, a well-respected pastor in the conservative city of Muskegon, Michigan, would never be caught in the middle of a heinous secret that could ruin his career and break up his beautiful marriage and family. Or would he?

When Henry Griffin was stationed in occupied Japan in the mid-1940s, he met a Japanese woman who fell head over heels for him. After too much to drink one night, one thing led to another... Now, ten years later, a letter from Japan arrives and threatens to upend Henry’s world. What to do and how to tell his wife are just the beginning of his troubles. Tough questions about faith, redemption, and preserving his reputation bring us here, under the shade of The Mercy Tree.

The two greatest forces in the world today are love and selfishness. Natural human love has failed because it is based upon selfishness. But through Jesus Christ, God has taught us a new kind of love—a deep and profound sacrificial love that transcends and persists regardless of circumstances.

In The New Kind of Love: God’s Heart Cry to Broken Humanity, E. W. Kenyon unveils the new kind of love that Jesus brought to the world. This love takes away the hardness and bitterness of our circumstances, enabling faith to grow and make every life a garden of delight.
