The Doodle Devotional is for everyone from the serious artist to the amateur doodler. During this eight-week journey, readers can create their own doodles and drawings with helpful prompts from author Anthony Thaxton. An artist and painter, he shares his God-given artistic gifts, memorable Scripture verses, and thoughtful daily devotionals.

QUESTIONS FOR DEEPER REFLECTION

1. Have you ever been through something difficult that seemed to have no purpose? According to today's devotion, what might the eternal purpose have been?
2. Think of a time when God fought for you. Write it down in your journal so you can remember what it felt like to know the God of the universe came to your rescue.

PATIENCE IS MAKING ROOM FOR GOD

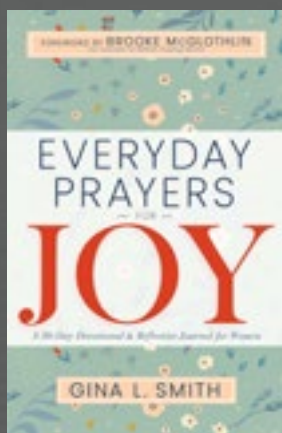

The Lord does not delay his promise, as some understand delay, but is patient with you, not wanting any to perish but all to come to repentance.

—2 Peter 3:9

One of the main reasons I love to pray the Word of God and encourage and teach others to do the same is because I believe God will always be true to it. There may not be many specific instructions for parents in the Bible, but there are plenty of promises for children. One of those, in Isaiah 55:11, is that God's promises are not void, but will do exactly what He promises.

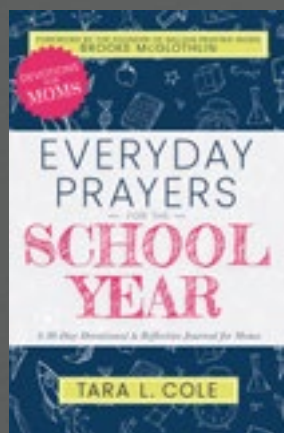

30-DAY DEVOTIONALS FOR WOMEN

In a season of overwhelming desperation, two moms with young sons begged God to do something to make a difference in their homes. He taught them how to pray—by giving His Word back to Him. These two moms, Brooke McGlothlin and Erin Mohring, decided to start a ministry for mothers of boys. Later, the Holy Spirit led them to create a new movement for all mothers: Million Praying Moms. Brooke, who now leads the ministry solo, coordinated this series of 30-day devotionals to inspire women to pray using God's Word. Her think, pray, praise method of daily prayer has transformed lives and families around the world.

47. THE DAUGHTERS OF ZELOPHEHAD: NUMBERS 27:1-11

Then came the daughters of Zelophehad, the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Manasse, of the families of the sons of Israel. They came and stood before Moses at the entrance of the tent of meeting. They said, "Our father died in the wilderness, and he left no son. Give us an inheritance among the inheritance of our fathers. And Moses brought their case before the Lord. And the Lord said to Moses, 'The daughters of Zelophehad are right. You shall give them an inheritance among the inheritance of their fathers. For they are daughters of Israel, and the inheritance of the Lord is theirs.'"

Even in the time of the wilderness, the Lord was with them, and they were not in the company of those who gathered themselves together against Moses and Aaron, as the Lord commanded. And the Lord said to Moses, 'The daughters of Zelophehad are right. You shall give them an inheritance among the inheritance of their fathers. For they are daughters of Israel, and the inheritance of the Lord is theirs.'"
