

We created an immersive virtual reality gallery allowing viewers to explore the surfboard art collection in a digital exhibition space. The experience allowed the shop to showcase artwork to audiences beyond the physical gallery of these one of a kind pieces. We curated the pieces and carefully chose the colors of the wall, floor and the order of the surfboard designs.

Tools used:

- ArtPlacer
- VR gallery environment customization